Dear Yr11, Parents and Carers,

What Next Sussex? A virtual post 16 fair for young people and their families in Sussex

We are delighted to tell you about What Next Sussex? a large virtual post 16 event happening on Wednesday 4th November and supported by Davison.

This event is vital for any young person deciding on what to do after Year 11.

There are two sessions in the day:

In school

- 1.50pm – 3.20pm for Yr11 students to gather advice and guidance to support their decision-making process. This will take place in their form rooms. Students will start their lunch at 1.10pm on this day.

At home

- 6.00pm - 7.30pm for parents/carers and students, to engage with at home.
- Please register for this live event.
- The session will include:
 - the opportunity to engage and chat with post 16 providers across Sussex i.e. further education colleges, 6th forms, employers and apprenticeship providers
 - other on demand video content from post 16 providers, apprenticeship providers and employers across Sussex

You can find out more about the different providers now by visiting the What Next Sussex directory at www.getcareerconfident.co.uk. You'll also find a video further explaining the event and the link for the live event here.

Best wishes,

Mrs J. Wood
