Dear Parent/Carer,

It has been brought to our attention that a student was approached by a stranger when leaving the train on her return home from school. Thankfully, the student acted quickly and was able to get home safely; this incident has been reported to Sussex Police and is being investigated.

In light of this event, and in conjunction with Sussex Police, I would like to encourage you to speak with your daughter about personal safety awareness and how to keep safe when she may be on her own.

The attached information from Sussex Police provides tips to encourage discussion and useful advice for answering questions or concerns that your daughter may have.

Whilst incidents of this nature are rare, they are an important reminder of the need to keep the lines of communication open with our young people and to help them think about how to keep themselves safe when they find themselves alone or away from trusted adults.

Yours faithfully
